About us

FTA Europe represents the common interests of the European flexographic printing industry. Our members are Europe's national associations, of which flexo companies are members. We are flexo companies' European family and platform for growth. Flexography is a direct rotary relief printing system predominantly used within the packaging industry that offers both high quality and extreme versatility in the production of any sort of packages, from labels to flexible films, paper, cardboard and corrugated carton. Flexo is the single largest printing process in Europe and is a fast-growing sector. The valued output of the flexo printing industry is €39.2 billion.

Since 2015, FTA Europe has represented its members across Europe in providing:

- A common voice
- Education and training
- Alignment
- Best practice
- Professional network
- Harmonisation and standardisation
- Advocacy
- Events and industry awards

FTA Europe's Secretariat, which runs the day-to-day management of the association, is based in Brussels, Belgium. FTA Europe shares its offices with Intergraf, the European federation for the printing industry.

More information about our organisation and activities can be found at www.FTA-Europe.eu or by contacting info@fta-europe.eu.

Our offer

Being the single point of communication between FTA Europe's members is one of our core activities. Our news is distributed to a large global audience, including:

- Printers and suppliers
- Trade press
- FTAs around the world
- Research institutes and flexo academics

The countries to which our news is sent extends way beyond Europe, including to the USA, Australia, Brazil, India and many more!

Featuring in our newsletter is the perfect way to extend the reach of your communications campaign. Your brand will be shown alongside news about FTA Europe's activities, as well as the latest industry developments. We are inviting you to be part of the European flexo community.
